Special Religious Education

What is SRE?

Special Religious Education (SRE) is education provided to students in NSW public schools by authorised representatives of approved religious groups to students who have nominated that religion. These classes are commonly known as "scripture".

AIES offers an educational program dedicated to providing Islamic education to Muslim students in NSW Public Schools. AIES is an approved Special Religious Education provider with the Department of Education and Communities.

To ensure a high quality of learning and keeping in touch with the needs of today's youth, AIES will review the curriculum every three years and update or amend accordingly.

What we teach:

AIES adheres to and is committed to deliver instruction in the beliefs and doctrine of the Islamic faith. AIES's beliefs align to those of traditional Islamic orthodoxy, namely a doctrine and worldview based on:

The Pillars of Islam:

- The Profession of Faith (The Shahada)
- Performance of Five Daily Prayers (Salat)
- Alms Giving (Zakat)
- Fasting during Ramadan (Saum)
- Pilgrimage to Mecca (Hajj)

The Pillars of Iman (belief):

- The belief in Allah the almighty;
- The belief in angels;
- The belief in the holy books revealed by Allah (God) to the various Prophets;
- The belief in the Messengers and Prophets sent by Allah (God);
- The belief in the resurrection and the events of Judgement Day;
- The belief in the predestination of Allah (God) of all things, both the (seemingly) good and the (seemingly) bad.

Our curriculum will be delivered according to the following scope and sequence: <https://tinyurl.com/4rn887zs>
