Grease The Musical: Session Times and How to Purchase Tickets

Lifeline Giant Book Fair

From the principal's desk:

Year 11 begin their final examinations today. We wish them well. Year 12 reports were distributed last Friday.

Last Thursday our HSC Music 2 and Music Extension students did their practical examinations for the HSC. All appeared happy and satisfied with their efforts after the challenge. Thank you to Ms Kim for preparing them so well. Our Year 12 Visual Arts works have been packaged ready to be sent to the examination centre. Teachers and families had the opportunity to look at the major works just before they were packed. There is some impressive creative talent in this school.

Students were reminded today about lateness to school and lateness to classes. Often all that is needed is to get a slightly earlier bus or set the alarm a few minutes earlier. Lateness is shown on our reports as partial absences and some students have a very high number of these.

Friday 8 November - Y11 and Support reports issued - Y7 Vaccinations

Some students sleep-in because they have been up late playing games on the computer. If they are planning to use the report to apply for a job or a scholarship it does not present the most positive view of the student and makes them look unreliable.

It was with great pleasure that I attended the ceremony at the Sydney Town Hall for the awarding of Gold Duke of Edinburgh Awards to two of our Year 12 students, Harish Jeyaruban and Natalie Tseung. The presentation marked the 60th year of the Duke of Edinburgh Awards in Australia and Prince Edward, the Earl of Wessex was present at the event.

Congratulations to:

- Lior Yoffe who won the UNSW Cancer Competition;
- The seven students who gained places in the CHS Athletics (listed elsewhere);
- Our newly elected Sports House captains; and
- Our Tournament of the Minds team who came second in NSW.

Year 9 Duke of Ed Camp 2019

It's 7:30am, Monday, September 9. Students are turning up to the shed, loaded with bags beyond measure, and yawning. Since when were early starts for high school students? Unfortunately, the coming week yielded even earlier wake-up times.

Year 9 students doing the Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Award embarked on their adventurous journey, hosted by Camp Somerset, which was a hike up and down some hills. Easy, right?

Over the course of five days, we were to navigate through parts of the Blue Mountains, near Colo, to various campsites scattered over 400 acres; campsites of the Somerset Outdoor Learning Centre.

Upon our arrival on Monday, we unloaded our baggage and underwent preliminary training. We were also enlightened about the art of packing a pack, how to set up a tent and about many features of the bush. We were prepared for the next four days in the bush.

Tuesday we embarked on our practice hike. We navigated to reach a series of points, until we reached our campsite. Along the way, we explored many trails, viewed many vistas and experienced the bush before settling down for the night at a campsite that was a far walk from our starting point. Wednesday saw us finish the practice hike, and returning to base camp for a repack and a lesson in using compasses.

Wednesday evening served dinner with a twist. My Kampsite Rules (Camp Somerset's off-brand My Kitchen Rules) saw us divided into small groups to cook a dish based on a certain cuisine, with the group leaders conducting a taste and cleaning (food tech anyone?) test, before pronouncing a winner. While Mr laconis didn't lend his expertise in Italian cooking, we all enjoyed eating the various dishes.

The qualifying hike (really, the one that would test us) began early Thursday morning. Did I mention that students (myself included) have an adverse reaction to the word 'test'? While we were navigating the same terrain, the route had different start and end points as opposed to the practice hike, and was more difficult. Whilst there were similar natural features, and some familiar points along the way, we generally explored more of Wollemi National Park as we climbed up and down hills.

As Friday dawned, it was time for the home run. Or rather, home hike. We had to make it back to base camp, pack all our gear back into our bags and say our goodbyes before the bus departed at 1:30pm, carting us all back to school.

While all of us can agree that there was pain along the way, the experiences that we gained will stay with us for life. The many geographical features we learnt about, the navigational skills we gained, the friendships forged, the memories created, and most importantly, improvements in our physical fitness all made this camp one to cherish. On behalf of everyone who came on this camp, I wish to thank the teachers for donating their time to be with us during this adventurous journey.

Schools Spectacular Spoken Word Poetry - Diya Goswami

At the end of last term, Diya Goswami in Year 10 submitted a video audition of a spoken word poem she wrote and performed to the Schools Spectacular selection committee. The poem was to be two minutes in length, and had to address the theme of "Environmental Change" in an interesting and original way. After a long wait, Diya has received word that she is one of only two students selected to perform her poem at Schools Spectacular - either on the main stage or as part of the pre-show performance called "SpecFest". The applications were open to students from across the state, and the standard of poems was reportedly very high.

Before she finds out her final performance time, Diya will attend two workshops with a professional spoken word poet - one in Week 10 this term, and one in Week 1 next term. This in itself is a fantastic opportunity. On top of this, Diya will be the first student from Baulko to take part in Schools Spectacular in a number of years.

This is an extremely significant achievement, and Diya should be very proud of herself. An achievement like this is the product of effort, dedication, and perseverance, and she will do the school proud in representing us in front of a live and televised audience in November this year.

If you see Diya around, please wish her luck and congratulate her!

Congratulations Diya!

Tournament of Minds

NSW State Finals (15 September 2019)

Yesterday a team of seven lovely ladies from BHHS represented the Sydney West Region at the NSW State Finals for Tournament of Minds. There were 63 teams competing from all across the state yesterday, making it a very competitive setting.

The State Finals is very different to the Regional Finals, where teams are required to solve an unseen challenge, which would normally take 6 weeks for Regionals, but they are given only 3 hours at State. These challenges are difficult and are designed to separate the best teams from the rest of the pack. On Sunday, the standard was set very high, I witnessed some excellent teams perform, and I am glad to say that our team was among them.

The challenge yesterday was very difficult, with the girls being asked to come up with a creative way to preserve culture and memory, create original songs, original dances and an original artwork, and learn their 10 minute performance all within a 3 hour lock down period. This was a very big ask, but these girls did an amazing job – presenting a performance that reflected their sophistication, ingenuity and creativity, a performance that was unique and set them apart from other schools.

16 September 2019

I am very proud to announce that this team placed second in the state for their efforts yesterday. They were the only team in the Sydney West region to place in the State Final, making it a huge accomplishment in what was a very challenging competition. It is very difficult to place in the State Finals, so I am immensely proud of what these girls have achieved.

These girls have worked tirelessly, every single day since they won the regional finals two weeks ago. They have shown the meaning of teamwork, perseverance and resilience through their relentless efforts and support of each other. I am very proud to be their coach and I am very proud of each one of them.

Congratulations to the 2nd Place Winners at the NSW State Tournament of Minds Finals 2019:

Crystal Deng, Riya Jani, Meera Gandhi, Rhecha Pathak, Shivani Sujay, Naaz Bareja and Megan Lingayath.

I look forward to the Tournament of Minds season in 2020! What a great year it has been!

BHHS Chess Report - 2019

The 2019 "chess season" is finally over! This year, a record 13 teams competed in the Metropolitan Secondary Schools Competition, in the Metropolitan West division. Several of these teams were made up of Year 7 students, which bodes well for the future of chess at BHHS.

Following the seven-week regular season in Term 2, three Baulkham Hills teams emerged as divisional winners and therefore qualified for the Met West finals. The Junior A team (Dhwani Patel, Shivam Pant, Jonathan Yap, Judy Huang) were unfortunate to be drawn against the strong James Ruse A team in their semi-final, and went down by a narrow 2.5-1.5 margin. The Intermediate A team (Vasu Bansal, Winston Zhao Chen, Toshiki Norimura, Frank Zhang) went one better, brushing aside Penrith 4-0 in the semi-final to reach the Met West final. There they faced their familiar rivals James Ruse, and were eliminated on countback after a 2-2 tie.

The Senior B team of Bing Rong Jiang, Max Sun, Jason Tan and Royce Zeng went one better still: in the Met West final, they defeated a strong Girraween team (which included the NSW Junior Champion, Cameron McGowan) to become Met West champions! They also won their first inter-region final against Knox 2.5-1.5 before going down to Sydney Grammar - again by the familiar 2.5-1.5 score line - in the Metropolitan Sydney final. Congratulations to all three teams.

Two BHHS teams also took part in the annual Secondary Schools One-Day Tournament (the Terrey Shaw Shield), which took place on Sunday 15 September. The Junior team, pictured below left (Winston Zhao Chen, Dhwani Patel, Jonathan Yap) finished fourth in a strong field, and the Open team, pictured below right (Bing Rong Jiang, Royce Zeng, Jason Tan) came sixth after a slow start.

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to watch the BHHS chess brigade in action this year. Here's to further successes in 2020!

Michael Salter, Chess co-ordinator

CHS Athletics Carnival

Over the course of 4-6 September, the CHS Athletics carnival was held at Homebush Athletics centre.
